

The Walled Garden

On the last day we looked at the walled garden. The walled garden is where all the vegetables were grown which we ate. There were potatoes, onions, leeks, tomatoes, lettuce, garlic and lots more. We had a look at the bug hotel. There was a scarecrow to keep the birds away from the vegetables.

By
Philip