Federation Day - Wednesday 28th March

A delightful day at both schools. We had a group called Fen Song in the morning doing drama and singing. Then in the afternoon KS2 from both schools were at Ten Mile Bank and we welcomed 25 Pilgrims into school. They were the Ely leg who are walking from Ely to Walsingham over 3 days. The children asked lots of questions, chatted with the pilgrims and sang with them too. They also had a chance to lift the 7ft wooden cross that the pilgrims carry. The children were polite, interested and friendly. Super day at the Riverside Federation.

Federation Day KS1 - 28th March

While KS2 were working with the pilgrims at Ten Mile Bank, KS1 children from Ten Mile were having an Easter Day with the children from Hilgay. Easter Gardens, Easter hats, and cooking Easter Nests were the order of the day. The performers from the Fen Song also visited in the afternoon and sang some songs. Great fun had by all.
