From the Head Teacher

Dear all

It finally looks like summer is coming and thankfully we have had some sunshine this week!

Yesterday, we all enjoyed a fantastic day at the Norfolk Showground with thousands of other children singing and watching performances.

There has also been a lot of great learning throughout school this week especially as Year 6 and Year 2 prepare for their upcoming SATS.

I hope you enjoy the long weekend and the sun continues to shine.

Regards,

Sarah Turner

Hoooooray
The Sun Has Got His Hat On.

Please ensure that your child has a sun hat in school, and suncream is applied before school.

The Big Sing

The sun shone, the children sang and every one had a wonderful time. Over 9000 children from all over Norfolk, led by Mark De-Lisser and the ACM Gospel Choir sang songs they had learnt over the past few weeks. Ain't No Mountain High Enough, Happy and Build It High just 3 of some of the songs. There was also a special guest performer, Alexandra Burke, who gave a stirring version of Hallelujah.

Noted Liars

On Monday 2nd July; 6.30pm at the Corn Exchange, King's Lynn the children from Barn Owls and Oak class will be participating in a grand finale of the Noted Liars programme that they have both performed for you.

A letter with all the details will be sent out shortly.
