Sleepover

It's Hilgay's turn tonight for the school sleepover.

There are lots of fun and games planned and hopefully some sleep will be had!

Photos to follow next week.

Carpet Bowls

As part of the Bishop's Lent Challenge Barn Owls Class went to the Chapel and learnt how to play Carpet Bowls with the Hilgay Carpet Bowls Club.

Val Gooding, the club secretary explained the rules and demonstrated how to bowl.

The children all took part in bowling and there were some outstanding efforts!

The bowls team meet once a week to play together and have competitions around the county.

Sleepover at Ten Mile

The Children at Ten Mile Bank started the day by preparing lots of delicious party food including Pizzas, cheese straws, cookies and brownies. At the party, there was a talent show, where children were able to show off their special talents. There was games and a paper aeroplane competition with Ella's achieving the greatest distant flown.

All the children slept well and enjoyed breakfast with their friends, before going home. Hilgay's turn tonight!!
