Hilgay Cathedral Day

On Tuesday 5th November the children at Hilgay had an excellent RE day, learning about our school family cathedrals: Lincoln, St Edmundsbury, Norwich, Peterborough and, of course, Ely.

The children spent the day working in their Cathedral family groups, learning about their own cathedrals. They spent time looking at when their Cathedrals were constructed and what materials were used, why they were built and studying the lay out of them. They compared the differences between a bishop and a priest by learning about their clothing and roles.

All the children were able to get practical during the afternoon making glittery salt dough pectoral crosses and decorated them with gems. They also collaboratively drew some amazing large pictures of their cathedrals.
